LOCAL BRIEFS.—

Cold, windy and Dusty—the weather.

Sheriff Ashwood, of Ashe county, brought to town Saturday one Davis, and placed him in the Penitentiary, having been convicted of forgery, and sentenced to nine years' imprisonment.

The only case before his honor, the Mayor, yesterday, was that of Jack Pool, charged with retailing spirituous liquors on Sunday, and also playing cards with one William Mitchell. Jack was made to sing to the tune of $30 and Mitchell at $10. The way of the transgressor is rocky.

A rare opportunity now offered—is to insure in the Connecticut Mutual Life this month, in order to secure the advantage of the large dividend that it will be enabled to pay next year, on account of its few losses accruing this year, and its very low rates or expenses. Office opposite post office.

Christmas is coming, and the Legislators will all go home to enjoy it. Of course the little ones at home will all expect something and the question naturally arises, where is the place to buy the necessary nick-nacks. By reference to the columns of the NEWS, it will be seen that Nat. L. Brown has the largest and most complete stock in the city.

Potter & Co. have greatly improved their restaurant on Fayetteville street, by opening an entrance from Fayetteville street, next door south of Ramsay's, the clothier, by which persons can go to private rooms, newly carpeted, comfortably heated, get their meals, and never know there is a bar room or bowling ally connected with the house. He has polite and attentive waiters, excellent cooks, and a bill of fare not to be surpassed in the city.

How can he resist it?—we mean Col. W. H Tucker, the old bachelor of the firm of W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., who has sold and handled himself the wedding outfit of thirty-five young people who "have gone the way they long have sought," this fall, not to say anything of the various bridesmaid's paraphanalia. It he remains single two months longer we shall then express openly an opinion that is fast taking hold of us.

Many of our State papers are causing considerable trouble to the Post office here and to members of the Legislature by sending occasionally papers to the members without prepaying the postage. When such papers are delivered the P. M. has to charge postage for a whole quarter, or 2 cents per copy, which is double the prepaid rates.

If the postage was paid at mailing office it would be only 1 cent. It is a fine of $50 to send papers through the mail without prepayment, unless it be to a regular subscriber, and then the kindness of the editor is not appreciated when the person whom he wants to have his paper has to pay the postage.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See the following advertisements which appear this morning:

Five dollars reward for a cloak lost.

Messrs. Miller & Nelson have an important communication.

Valuable city property will be so'd on the 24th inst., by A. N. Upchurch, Commissioner.

For holiday presents, go to J. W. Watson's fine art gallery, second door above Tucker Hall.

D. S. Waitt has just opened a large stock of dry goods, ready-made clothing, &c. His store is two doors above the market.

THE NORTH CAROLINA AGRICULTURAL AND INDUSTRIAL CONVENTION.—The above named body will convene in the Court House in this city, on Wednesday next, at 12 o'clock, M., and in the Hall of the House of Representatives on Wednesday night. Members and delegates are requested by the Secretary, R. W. Best, Esq., to meet accordingly.

THE PEACE INSTITUTE CANTATA.—We publish with pleasure the following communication in relation to the late cantata at the Peace Institute:

RALEIGH, Dec. 7th.

Messrs. Editors of the News:—

I received in the distribution of the mail yesterday evening the following note, under date of December the 5th written in a delicate hand and deliciously perfumed:

"If Mecklenburg would write an article on the Cantata last Friday night at Peace Institute, and publish it in the NEWS, he would very much oblige many friends and admirers among the LADIES OF RALEIGH."

I am almost convinced it is all a hoax—that it didn't emanate from any ladies or lady at all, but from some masculine genius with a dangerous talent, if not propensity, for forgery. But I shall nevertheless (with your indulgence and co-operation) treat the request as a flattering verity.

I am not quite assured that it is not, and my rule of service to the opposite sex is like that of the law which holds that it is better that ninety-nine guilty persons escape than one should suffer innocently. Applying the principle more deservedly, it is surely better that countless numbers of joking masculine "jail birds" should be unworthily indulged than one woman—not to speak of "many"—should in anything or in anywise be disobliged.

I must needs disappoint my fair correspondents though, do what I will. They have doubtless mistaken me (if this note is genuine) for a musical critic. But I am anything else. I love music—love it passionately—without in the least knowing why. As to written music, that is, and will ever remain, an inexplicable mystery to me how any body on earth can read it. The notes and longitudinal bars suggest to me no other association or similitude than that of a five rail fence with very black little "niggers" climbing it at all stages of getting over.

With this frank preface, I proceed to pronounce summary judgment upon the "Cantata." All the parts, and all the persons singing them, delighted me, and in my unlearned opinion reflected infinite credit upon the pupilage and preceptors of the musical department of Peace Institute. As to "Queen Esther's" part, the vision and the voice have haunted me ever since. In further praising her and no one else, particularly, I must not be understood invidiously, but only as conforming to the usage and etiquette of all courts royal to praise only "Majesty" in the presence of "Majesty," or where it is concerned. And the "Queen" in this case, I am quite sure, will take the praise like Majesty, and not let it turn her pretty head—except in a more literal sense sometimes—when we chance to meet—in the direction of one of her most loyal and devoted subjects.

I would I could describe, for such readers of the NEWS as were not at the Cantata, her appearance on that occasion But, I could as easily write an immortal poem I must be let off with the easy old comprehension of description in such cases, that she "looked every inch a Queen." But her singing—her voice! Ah, for that I have not ever any easy old formula of empty words to escape in. Yet I can scarcely say more of it, in my ignorance, than that it was a wonderful soprano I believe that is what they call it. At any rate,

"It was like the warbling of a bird,
So sof , so sweet, so delicately clear!
A voice of melting tenderness, which blent
With pure and gentle musings fill the soul,
Commingling with the melody, was borne,
Rapt and dissolved in ecstacy, to Heaven."

But Esther! mock queen of ancient Persia, and queen most real of to day in all that makes a queen better than her hand-maidens, would'st know the moral of so rare a gift? An, it please you, my liege, even I will suggest it. It is to use and not misuse it, and to be gratefully happy in it as Heaven—which gave it—may direct and shape your lot. Like beauty it is a dangerous gift, and especially so when it is combined with beauty and ambition. I know not if you have the last, but if you have, fair lady—fair girl—take it not amiss that I, almost a stranger, should presume to charge you to put it utterly aside, and never be tempted to take it to your heart and counsel again. You may have seen in print (as I have of late) other and higher, because more competent, praise of your voice than this of mine, and it may have suggested to you a glorious public career. The opinion expressed that you might make yourself the peer of any who have enjoyed or now enjoy fame and triumph on the Lyric stage, might or might not be fulfilled. But in either case, if I have not read the history and the secret soul of your sex altogether wrong, you would equally find at the end of all the saddest failure of all, in the conviction, too late, that you had mistaken your true mission and missed your own true happiness in this world.

In my humble but devoted opinion, woman's only true and intended happiness is impossible of achievement in any pursuit o fame, least of all in any that withdraws her from that sweet privacy of life she is born and was meant to beautify and purify, and best enjoy. If any of you should think that this sort of exclusion and seclusion of you is, in effect, but to make your lives altogether useless and inglorious, I can only assert in answer here, that there never has been, is not now, and never will be any great or good or glorious career in my own sex not directly or indirectly due to yours, as "the power behind the throne."

One word more of, or rather to, "Queen Esther," particularly, and I reluctantly take my present leave of you all Let her take or reject any part or the whole of my advice, so that she take none of it as intended offense or familiarity. I would rather she used her extremest queenly prerogative and took my life—or what were infinitely worse still, that I should never be taken, myself, "for better or worse," by any ill judging but most loving and lovely little tyrant of her irresistable, inexplicable sex.

HENDERSON ITEMS—KU KLUXISM.—Our Henderson correspondent, under yesterday's date, gives us the following items:

Miss Jennie Patterson read here Friday night. She is a most excellent reader, and gave great delight to an appreciative audience. With a musical and flexible voice, faultless pronunciation, emphasis and punctuation, she makes the meaning of what she reads, whether tragic or comic, grave or gay, so clear as to force the audience to comprehend and sympathize.

Leaf tobacco is selling at from six to sixty-five dollars per hundred pounds at the Henderson warehouse Another warehouse is building, and the building of a third one is under consideration, and a part of the stock already subscribed.

It is believed that the first case of Ku kluxism in this State, occurred within three miles of this place just after the war, under the regime of that wonderful institution, the Freedman's Bureau. One Madison Fogg, a free negro of the "old issue," thinking that freedom, under the new order of things, meant that every black man could do as he pleased, gave his old wife an unmerciful flogging, and set up a little Utah for his own personal benefit. One night he had returned from his "grand round," and was indulging in a few strains on his violin. He had played most of the newly introduced airs, such as the "Kingdom are a Comin'," and was indulging in a reminiscence, the lively "Where Did You Come From," when somebody did come—from where he knew not—and drew a meal bag over him, which bag they carried out and laid across a log and flogged just as Madison Fogg had flogged his wife. About this time Fogg was in the "invisible empire." From the noise heard, it is suggested that he was in the bag. Fogg yet lives in blissful ignorance, and the leader of that Ku Klux Klan, on that darksome night, is thought to be safe in the bosom of the Radical party.

The new county of Gilliam is the exciting topic of the day. It meets with almost unanimous favor within the contemplated limits.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.—We wish there was no such word. Whenever a member rises from his seat to a question of privilige, we begin to tremble with fear and trepidation, because we know he is after us. In a daily paper, with an evening and morning edition, it is next to an impossibility to avoid typographical errors, and the NEWS is by no means an exception to this rule. On Friday last we published the name of Mr Settle, as Little—Mr. Settle, of course, did not want to be made little of, and rose to a question of privilige. Mr Settle was very right in saying the NEWS reporter would make the amende honorable. The gallant Representative from Rockingham need have no fears that the NEWS, and the balance of the State press combined, could make little of him or his praise worthy efforts to redeem North Carolina from Radical rule in the last exciting State canvass. We make all due reparation and apology for that little report, and hope the Captain will forgive, promising to be more cautious in future of whom we make little of.

The State Treasurer will move to-day to adjudicate against the twelve sheriffs that have not as yet settled.

Mr. Johnston was relieved from the Committee to examine in the Penitentiary affairs, and Mr. Morrison appointed in his stead.

LEGISLATIVE INCIDENTS.—In the Senate yesterday, the resolution to relieve Mr. Thos. B. Baily from his lease of the Lovejoy Academy was referred back to the Committee. Mr. Ellis, of Columbus, favored the selling of all the public buildings that are not being used for public purpose.

The resolution of Mr. Norwood, introduced in the Senate yesterday, prohibiting the change of the present guage upon any of the railroads in the State, is an important one, as it looks directly to the prohibiting of the proposed change upon the road from Greensboro to Charlotte.

During the discussion of the resolution in the Senate yesterday to pay Judge Moore for the time during which the fall term of Hyde Superior Court should have been held, he being sick at the time, several high compliments were paid that gentleman's official career by different Senators. The Senate decided, however, that to pay a Judge for a failure to hold a Court from any cause would be in positive violation of an existing law.

A rather amusing debate took place in the Senate yesterday over the question of not paying members during an absence from their seats from any cause save business for the General Assembly. Mr. Murphy opposed the resolution, as he said there was only an evidence of a desire to create a little "home capital" in the matter—a little "buncombe" work that he would not support. The Senate adopted the resolution, but it will doubtless be killed in the House.

MISS PATTERSON'S RECITATIONS.—Miss Jeanie Patterson gave one of her select readings last evening at the Hall of the House of Representatives to a large and highly appreciative audience. Miss Patterson was greeted, on her second appearance in Raleigh, by the elite and beauty of the city, among whom she has many true friends.

We have so often spoken at length of Miss Patterson's merits as a reader, and of her accomplishments as a lady, that it is unnecessary for us to say more than that she not only sustained her enviable reputation, but even surpassed herself in her admirable readings last evening. The breathless attention of her audience during her performance and the warm applause at the close of each piece, attested the matchless power of this noble daughter of the South over the minds and hearts of her hearers.

She will give another reading this evening at 7½ o'clock.

THE STATE PRINTING.—At a meeting of Raleigh Typographical Union, held on Saturday night, the following preamble and resolution were adopted, and copies were directed to be furnished to the city daily press, with the request to publish:

WHEREAS, The letting by contract of the State Printing has been damaging to the contractor, and believing also that the employed printer should receive a just remuneration for his services; therefore,

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the position taken by Gen. J. C. Gorman, one of our immediate Representatives in the General Assembly, in opposing the proposition to let out to the lowest bidder the public printing of the State.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—Geo. W Brooks presiding—Monday, Dec. 9, 1872.

In the case of Doe ex dem. vs. Carroll tried on Saturday night the jury returned a verdict for the defendant, J. B. Batchelor for plaintiff and Battle & Sons for the defendant.

No jury cases tried to-day. The time was consumed in arguing points of law and the Judge deciding the same.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS.—If they choose' women certainly have the right to ride astraddle, and we object to sin being made of it.

A new term has been invented by the classic man of the Rome Commercial. He heads an article on the subject of "women riding astraddle," which we will unjoint for the benefit of our unclassical readers, thus—Hippo-mulier straddleiina.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The election of officers of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, for the ensuing masonic year, held last evening resulted as follows:

W. M.—R. H. Bradley.
S. W.—Jack R. Williams.
J. W.—N. B Broughton.
Treasurer—W. C. Stronach.
Secretary—W P. Wetherell.

INCENDIARISM.—We learn that the residence of Mr. H. A. Reams, near Roxboro, in Person county, came near being destroyed by fire a short while before day on the morning of the 4th inst. The fire was discovered only in time to save the house by the most strenuous exertions. It was the work of an incendiary, as the evidence of his fiendish attempts were not destroyed.

DIED:

HINTON—At the residence of Henry Montfort, Esq., near this city, on Sunday, the 8th inst., at 9 o'clock, P. M., in the forty-sixth year of his age, Asa Hinton Hinton.

The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from the residence on Tuesday, the 10th inst., at 11 o'clock A. M.

TUESDAY.....DECEMBER 10, 1872.

AN ORPHAN ASYLUM FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

During the session of the Grand Lodge of Masons in this city last week, a resolution was adopted donating the magnificent building of St. John's College at Oxford, as an Asylum to the indigent orphan children of the State, and making an annual appropriation for its support.

Our readers will remember that the News published several articles on this subject last Spring, in which we took the position that St. John's College should be converted into an Orphan Asylum, and urged that a movement be inaugurated in the State, looking to its purchase and use for that purpose.

St. John's College was erected several years before the war at a cost of some thirty thousand dollars. It was originally designed for a Masonic College, but the plan has not proved a feasible one, or at least has never been carried out, from various causes—a reference to which would now be useless. Since its completion, the building has been leased out occasionally for educational purposes—but at intervals has remained in an unoccupied and useless condition. The purposes of its original erection have signally failed, and the Grand Lodge for a number of years has been puzzled as to what disposition should be made of it.

We seconded the suggestion of the Biblical Recorder for its conversion into an Asylum for the maintenance and education of the poor orphan children of the State, large numbers of whom are rapidly growing up in vice, idleness, ignorance and want—without any supporting or directing hand to save them from lives of wickedness, suffering and shame.

We appealed to the philanthropic and generous citizens of the State to take some measures looking to the amelioration of this unfortunate portion of our population, and argued the propriety and practicability of the plan to buy St. John's College of the Masons—knowing its peculiar fitness, in most every respect, for the purposes of an orphan asylum.

Now that the Masons have come forward and with that humanity and generosity for which their order has ever been distinguished, dedicated this noble edifice as a free gift to the destitute orphans of the State, and in addition agreed to contribute five hundred dollars annually to the same object, we desire to add an humble tribute of praise and gratitude in behalf of those whose lips are speechless, for whose benefit this great benefaction was conferred, and also in the name of the people of North Carolina whose hearts must be deeply touched by this act of benevolence and moral sublimity on the part of the Masonic order.

Mr. J. H. Mills, editor of the Biblical Recorder of this city, was elected by the Grand Lodge Superintendent of the Orphan Asylum, with authority to solicit contributions for its support from all classes of our citizens.

We trust that the press of the State, both secular and religious, will lend its voice and its whole influence in aid of the work which has been placed under Mr. Mills' direction, and that a generous response will be made in behalf of this truly charitable and humane undertaking.

Thousands of poor children in this State made orphans by the war, whose fathers perished on the field of carnage or died in hospitals from wounds or sickness incurred in behalf of North Carolina, are to-day wandering half-fed, half-clothed, uncared for, uninstructed, unpitied—with a future before them—Oh! so dark and dreary and hopeless! and as yet no systematic effort has been made either by the State authorities or by the voluntary action of our people, to rescue these living objects of our bounty from the dangers, temptations and evils which environ their present pitiable condition.,

The plans and purposes of the Superintendent appointed by the Grand Lodge have not yet been made public, but we presume we shall hear from him in a few days.

In the meantime, we ask our exchanges to give their encouragement to the project, and to commend to their readers a patriotic and holy cause, which appeals powerfully to the noblest instincts and purest sentiments of the human heart.

COMMENTING ON THE SENATORSHIP.

Our State exchanges continue to comment on the circumstances of the election of Judge Merrimon. The general sentiment is one of disappointment and regret that the nominee of the party was not elected. We are glad to see that there is an almost universal concurrence in the views which the News has expressed, that Judge Merrimon is a Conservative still, and that he has done nothing to justify the Radical rejoicing over his election, which must be as unpleasant to the Senator elect as it is improper and injudicious.

We learn from several sources that there is a deep feeling of mortification in several sections among the Conservatives, not because Judge Merrimon is elected, but at the manner in which that result was brought about. The precedent which has been set many think will work great injury to the party in all future nominations of every character. It is not to Judge Merrimon, personally or politically, that any objection has been made—for the opinion seems to be unanimous that if he had been regularly elected by the Conservatives he would have made a Senator of whom the State would have cause to be proud.

But that he should be elected by the unanimous Radical vote with the aid of a few Conservatives, who were unwilling to support the regular nominee of the party, has produced much dissatisfaction and discontent, and while the public have faith in Judge Merrimon's Conservative principles, they are fearful his conduct is fraught with peril to party organization.

In order that our readers may know the popular sentiment as reflected through the mirror of the public press, we propose to give such extracts tomorrow as we may deem judicious, from our State exchanges, on the subject of the Senatorial election.

THE OFFICE OF ASSESSOR ABOLISHED.

We noticed that the lower House of Congress passed on Friday last a bill to abolish the office of Assessor and Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue. As it is known that the duties of these officials can be readily performed by the Collectors and their Assistants, the public will be glad to learn that the Assessors will now be made to retire to private life.

This is a move in the right direction, and we trust that Congress will continue to apply the knife until all the superfluous branches, which have been draining the Treasury of the hard-earnings of the tax-payers, will be speedily pruned off.

We are in favor of the abolition of the whole Revenue system as at present manipulated, but if we can not get at the root of the evil, we are thankful for any improvement whereby the abuses of the system may be mitigated.

Fears are expressed, however, that the Senate will not concur in the action of the House, and it is therefore by no means certain that the bill will become a law.

We have but little faith in the Senate of the United States. That body has shown itself much more intolerant and proscriptive than the House. But surely a matter of so much practical importance as the abolition of the useless offices of Revenue Assessors and Assistants will meet with the approbation of both Houses of Congress—for the people of both parties demand a curtailment of the extraordinary and unnecessary expenses of collecting the taxes—which have proved so burdensome under the present Internal Revenue system.

APPROPRIATION INSUFFICIENT.

Before Congress adjourned last Summer, Hon. Sion H. Rogers managed by extraordinary efforts to get an appropriation of $100,000 from the Government, for the erection of a Post Office and Circuit Court building in this City, on the grounds owned by the Government.

The architect employed to investigate the cost to be incurred in erecting the building, has reported that $100,000 is not enough, but that it will require $250,000 to build the structure designed.

We do not know by what authority the architect acted, but it strikes us that a building costing $100,000 will be amply sufficient for a Court Room and Post Office.

Considering the unsightly appearance of the shanty now denominated the Raleigh Post Office, and the difficulty Col. Rogers had in getting an appropriation through Congress, we think it will be better to let well enough alone and go to work on the hundred thousand dollar building.

If we are to wait for an appropriation of $250,000, the work may never be done.

WILL NOT ACCEPT.

Three thousand dollars have been already contributed by members of the press for the benefit of the two daughters of Horace Greeley, who have been left orphans by the recent death of both parents. This fund was started by the New York Herald, and as contributions began to pour in from all sections of the country they were stopped by an announcement through the telegrams that the Misses Greeley, while not objecting to any testimonial to the memory of their father, positively declined any pecuniary aid for themselves. This act in itself was graceful and becoming and in refusing to become beneficiaries on the public charity these young ladies have set an example that deserves to be imitated.

It is understood that Mr. Greeley's children are not destitute. His estate is estimated at about twenty thousand dollars, and Mrs. Greeley left property worth probably much more than that amount. So there was no necessity for any contributions of charity for the two daughters.

It is said that the sum already donated for the Greeley fund will be used in erecting a monument to the memory of the great journalist.

The horse malady is spreading in St. Louis.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

If you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples, Blotches and Eruptions, purify your blood by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose.

The Human Roof and its Thatching.—If the man deserves well of his country who makes two blades of grass grow where only one grew before, surely he who produces a glorious crop of hair on a comparatively barren scalp deserves the hearty thanks of the obliged party. All honor, therefore, to Professor E. T. Lyon, for, unquestionably, his renowned Kathairon accomplishes this object. Gentlemen whose whiskers are shy of making their appearance in force, or the fibers of whose moustaches disclose those "magnificent distances" for which Washington City was once so famous, will find this Hair Persuader the most wonderful encourager of fibrous development that has ever yet been invented. Both sexes are advised to use it, as, by all odds, it is the best article for improving the growth and beauty of the hair, keeping it free from scurf and dandruff, preventing it from becoming harsh, dry and gray—giving it a rich gloss and endowing it with flexibility—that Toilet Chemistry has ever evolved from the vegetable kingdom.

Dr. Tutt's Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight.—This valuable preparation combines all the Medicinal virtues which long experience has proven to possess the most safe and efficient Alterative and deobstruent properties for the cure of Scrofula, King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Cancerous and Indolent Tumors, Mercurial and Syphilitic Affections, Enlargement and Ulceration of the Bones, Glands, or of the Womb, Spleen and Kidneys; all the various Diseases of the skin, such as Tetter, Ringworms, Boils Pimples, Sore Eyes, &c; Nervous Affections, Dropsy, and all diseases originating from a depraved state of the Blood. Also many affections peculiar to Females, as Suppression, Irregularity, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, Ovarian and Uterine Drops, &c. It is purely Vegetable.

When using Dr Tutt's Liver Pills, no restraint of diet or occupation is necessary. You may eat or drink as usual. They are purely vegetable

The Tenacity of Truth.—When situation as clear-headed as the Americans once become convinced, from long experience and observation, that an article possesses superior excellence as a medicine, not all the preposterous clamor of all the worthless nostrum venders in the universe can shake their belief in its efficiency. Truth is a very tenacious thing, as these worthies are beginning to discover. Plantation Bitters has too firm a hold upon the popular esteem to be in the slightest degree effected by the cold Water diatribes which the advertisers of fermented slops, "without a particle of alcohol," are so fond of launching against alcoholic preparations. The public knows very well that this peerless renovant and tonic does contain spirits, but it also knows that they are of the purest and most wholesome description, viz: fine old St. Croix, the most active and beneficial diffuser of its remedial and invigorating properties throughout the system, which could possibly be adopted.

The Secret of Beauty.—What is it? no longer asked, for the world of fashion and all the ladies know that it is produced by using a delightful and harmless toilet preparation known as G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." Its beautifying effects are truly wonderful. Depot, 6 Gold street, New York.

We Have Frequently Heard mothers say they would not be without Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, from the birth of the child until it has finished with the teething siege, under any consideration whatever.

Pratt's Astral Oil, has a world-wide reputation as the surest and best illuminating oil. Over two million gallons have been sold for the past two years, from which no accidents of any description have occurred. Send for circular. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

Thurston's Ivory Pearl Tooth Powder.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

Burnett's Standard Flavoring Extracts are neatly put up in Unpannelled 2 oz., 5 oz. and 10 oz. bottles, and are for sale by the trade generally in every principal city and town in the United States, Canadas, and British Provinces, as well as in many other foreign countries.

Help for the Hopeless.—You are weak, dejected, miserable, and nothing does you any good, you say. Don't despair. There is balm in Gilead. Have you tried Vinegar Bitters? No! Then why don't you? Whether your complaint be dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, constitutional debility, or any other trouble, Vinegar Bitters will revive and renovate your shattered system, as a genial rain refreshes the withered flowers.

For Dyspepsia, indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers, the Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

To Owners of Horses.—No one who has ever used Dr. Tobias' Horse Venetian Liniment, will ever be without it; it is a certain cure for Colic, Sore Throat, Cuts, Bruises and Old Sores. Warranted superior to any other in pint bottles, at One Dollar. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

Risley's Buchu is a reliable Diuretic and Tonic for all derangements of the urinary and genital organs. The genuine, as formerly sold by Hayland, Harral & Risley, and their branches, is now prepared by H. W. Risley, the originator and Proprietor; and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, New York.

Syapnia, or opium purified, the most perfect anodyne in the market, made by process of Dr. A. M. Bigelow, Detroit Medical College. Is always uniform in strength, which is surely the case in other preparations of Opium.

Eggs and butter in demand in Statesville.

Pork is selling at 8½ cents per pound in Wilmington.

The epizooty has nearly disappeared in Wilmington.

The horse malady is rapidly spreading in Edgecombe county.

Wayne county jail is being rebuilt in a substantial manner.

A large bear was killed at Beaufort, within the town limits last Wednesday.

The Wilson Plaindealer says the Ledger has suspended, and Mr. David Barnes, it editor, has gone West.

The eastern portion of the North Carolina Railroad is soon to pass under the control of Col. R. R. Bridgers.

The Tarboro Southerner says the new bank building has been stopped in its construction temporarily for the want of material.

The neat little Farmer's Journal published in Goldsboro, is to be improved the 1st of January. The price of subscription will remain at $1.50 per year.

The Charlotte Observer learns that Mr. Terrill Henry was robbed by a party of negroes of some $60 or $65 on Thursday of last week, a short distance from Charlotte.

We learn that Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of New Hanover county, has been elected one of the Vice Presidents of the Medical Department of the University of New York.

The Newbern Times learns that the distilleries owned by W. A. Rotts, of Washington, with a large quantity of rosin, spirits and turpentine was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last.

The Statesville Intelligencer says the county commissioners of Iredell refused to grant further license to parties in town to retail spirituous liquors within the corporation after the present license has expired.

The Asheville Citizen says: "Judge Dick, at the late term of the Federal Court at this place, made a decree, foreclosing the mortgage held by certain Northern parties on the Eastern Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, and as a matter of course, ordered a sale of the road. Col. B. S. Gaither and Major Marcus Erwin were appointed Commissioners to make the sale, which will be at public auction after forty days notice.

We confess we have not sufficient information to be able to foreshadow the effect of Judge Dick's decree upon our railroad prospects. The general impression, however, is that as soon as the sale is made, work on the road will be resumed. This impression grows out of the fact that no one in North Carolina being able to purchase the road, the mortgagees who procured the decree of foreclosure, will be compelled to buy and finish the Road, in order to make themselves whole.

Whether the Road shall be bought and finished or not, the lamentable fact still remains that the State's entire interest in the stock of the same, amounting to four million dollars, and two million dollars private stock, will go for a mere song! It does seem to us that the Legislature ought to make provision at once to redeem the Road, and thus save to the State the valuable property that is now almost in the hands of Northern capitalists. Two or three hundred thousand dollars would free the Road from all encumbrances, and when once free, there would be but little difficulty in pushing it to an early completion.

Will not the Legislature come to the rescue?

Buried Alive—A Horrible Secret of the Grave Revealed.

For some time past the work of removing the remains of the departed from the old Roman Catholic burying ground to the new cemetery has been quietly going on. The sacred ashes have been reverently taken from their narrow beds and removed by the hands of loving friends to the new city of the dead. Recently buried bodies have been unecffined that fond eyes might gaze upon their features for a last time before covering them with the sod again.

One such incident of a startling nature occurred last Tuesday. A gentleman who was engaged in removing the remains of some of his deceased relatives was asked by an acquaintance, who was similarly engaged, to assist him in lifting a coffin from a grave.—He did so, and the lid was taken off.—To the horror of the small body of spectators who gathered around it, they discovered that the body, which was that of an uncle of the gentleman who was removing it, had been disturbed in the coffin. It was terribly contorted, as if the deceased had died in great agony. The face wore an expression of intense pain and horror, the arms were drawn up as far as the coffin would admit, and the head was twisted round to the shoulders, from wich the flesh had been gnawed by the struggling man. Sickened by the horrid sight, the spectators drew back from the coffin and looked speechless into each other's eyes. Not a word was spoken, but there was not a man present who did not feel that the deceased had been buried alive—probably while in a trance—and had awakened only to perish in his living tomb. The coffin was closed again and taken to the new cemetery, where it was decently interred.—Ottawa Citizen.

The Proposed Fund for the Misses Greeley.—The proposition originating with the New York Herald for the subscription fund for the benefit of the daughters of Horace Greeley, the editor of that paper leading with a subscription of $1,000 followed by various subscriptions by other journalists, has been formally declined by the editors of the Tribune on the part of the Misses Greeley. The Tribune, in referring to the circumstance indicates that the association to which that paper belongs, and of which Mr. Greeley was the head, will assume the grateful duty of doing all that may be necessary in the matter.

Just as some of the newspapers got fully under way in discussing the question as to how the electoral vote in the States, giving majorities for Greeley, should be cast, the vote was cast. So the argument had to be suspended.

Buried by a Bear.

The following is from the Omaha Tribune: A gentlemen who arrived a few days ago from the lower country, where grizzly bears help the herders to take care of the sheep, relates a curious bear adventure which occurred to an Indian herdman in his employ. He sent the man to a distant portion of a large ranch to look after a herd of sheep. The Indian at nightfall got under a shed with a roof of branches, but open on all sides, and lay down in his blankets. After a few hours' sleep he was awakened by feeling the hot breath of some animal on his face. He moved his arms and at once understood the situation—a huge bear was snuffing him. The man, with great presence of mind, determined to keep perfectly still, for he knew if he moved or cried out one blow of those huge paws would break his skull like a walnut. Bruin scratched off the blankets and seized the Indian by the legs.

Though suffering terribly, the brave fellow did not allow a groan or cry to escape him. The bear dragged him from the hut for some distance, and then commenced to dig a hole to lay the Indian and cover him up from the coyotes. After the grave had been dug deep enough, and the bear, contenting himself with about a pound of flesh from the victim's thigh, moved the body to the hole and covered it up. The Indian managed to keep the earth over his face loose enough to allow him to breathe, and when the bear retired he crawled out towards the mustang, which was picketed some fifty yards outside the hut. With great difficulty he mounted, and then rode towards the ranche house. A doctor was sent for, and pronounced the wounds, though severe and painful, not likely to prove fatal. The next day a hunt was organized, and the grizzly was killed in the neighborhood of the spot where he had stowed his intended meal.

A Curious Case of Suicide.—A curious case of suicide has just been developed by a coroner's inquest, at Cleveland. Alice Saffel, a girl of about 15, took a full dose of laudanum because unpleasant stories about her were circulating around the neighborhood. Her mother committed suicide in the same way a year ago, and strange to say the same bottle contained the fatal potion for both. The father had kept the poison locked up, but the girl obtained the key, and drank the deadly draught.

The difference between the annual expenses of the Government in 1860 and 1872 is just the difference between $70,000,000 and $300,000 000. We are evidently progressing, so far as extravagance is concerned.

It is thought that Gen. J. B. Gordan will certainly be elected to the U. S. Senate from Georgia to succeed Hon. Joshua Hill.

This is strictly a

HOME LIFE COMPANY.

Its Officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity. It offers every that Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the state, and, therefore, helps to build up and foster Home Institutions.

Another important fact to be considered is, that the Wilmington Life has thus far obtained A VERY MUCH LARGER INTEREST for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements below the Commissioner of that State.

These unquestionable facts should commend this company, above all others, to our people. Let it be born in mind that millions of dollars received for Life premiums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enriches the pecuniary resources of the North. If there was no other consideration, safety, economy and promptness being equal. Why North Carolinians should insure AT HOME, this would more than sufficient.

THE WILMINGTON LIFE

has excellent special features.

It places no restriction on Residence or Travel; it makes no extra charge for Female risks; and its Policies are incontestable after Five Years.

Its business is managed economically. Its risks are taken with equal caution. Its investments are made judiciously.

Its motto is:

"ECONOMY, PROMPTNESS, FAIRNESS."

NOON DISPATCHES.

General Intelligence.

A New York dispatch says that the reported connection of Schuyler Colfax with the Tribune and Oakley Hall with the Herald is authoritatively denied. The editorial and composing rooms of the Express were damaged by fire to the extent of $10,000.

Editors Daily News:

GENTS:—In your Daily of Saturday morning appeared an aavertisement headed $50 d-ward; offering this sum for the recovery of $150, alleged to have been stolen from the uberiber while in Miller & Nelson's aloon Friday morning. As the notice is calculated to do us an injury, p rhaps unntentional on the part of said subscriber, ve desire to make the following statement:

The subse iber to the advertisement mendoned came in our saloon at about 2½ o'clock, A. M., on the morning mentioned, is appearance plainly ir dicating that he ad been on an extended debauch. Several gentlemen were present in the room, all of whom he asked to j in him in a drink, and some ac epted. While the drinks were being served by the bar tender, he incidentally obs-rved that he had sp-nt the night "asleep" at a house of ill-fame, stating the name. He called for two or more drinks and sat down by the stove and went to leep in his chair. The same gentlemen remained in the Saloon playing billiards ill this said subscriber awoke, and feeling n his pockets, said he had lost $150. He id not intimate then that he had lost his money in our house, and we must say we were surprised when we saw his dvertisement. If necessary, we can get the certificate of the several gentlemen in the Saloon, corroborating the above facts. If his money was lost he certainly had a better opportunity of losing it before getting to our house. Very respectfully, &c.,
